

At-a-Glance Quick Guide – Getting the Right Help

Student's Behavior:

Response:

Demonstrates evidence of immediate harm to self or others.

Call 911 and then call Security & Safety at 360-442-2911.

Displays evidence of suicidal thoughts or other distressed behaviors that do not appear to create an immediate danger but need prompt attention.

Call Counseling Services at 360-442-2330, or Lower Columbia Mental Health at 360-423-0203, or National Suicide Prevention Hotline at 800-784-2433 (24/7).

Shows signs of emotional distress/mental health-related issues but not necessitating immediate attention.

Refer student to Counseling Services at 360-442-2330.

Displays Red Flag behaviors related to potential violence or threat. Some Red Flags include threats or veiled threats of violence, self-harm, hopelessness & paranoia.

Call Security & Safety at 360-442-2911.

Is inappropriate or disrupts the class.

Implement standard classroom management strategies.

Makes you or others feel unsafe.

Call Security & Safety at 360-442-2911.

Violates the Lower Columbia College Code of Student Conduct.

Submit Student Conduct Referral Form and call the Manager of Security & Safety at 360-442-2270 if you have questions.

Possibility that the student has a disability impacting his/her ability to learn.

Call Disability Support Services (DSS) at 360-442-2340 or 360-442-2341.

Indicates he or she is experiencing bias, discrimination or harassment.

Call the Manager of Safety and Security at 360-442-2270 or the Vice President of Student Success at 360-442-2300.