LOWER COLUMBIA COLLEGE

The Smart Choice!

FALL 2014 CLASS SCHEDULE

FALL CLASSES BEGIN SEPTEMBER 22
LCC offers a variety of services supporting workforce development and customized training through the Corporate & Continuing Education Department. Working with area businesses, industries and agencies, LCC offers Work Keys profiling and assessment services to provide employers, employees and job seekers with direct information regarding the skills needed to succeed in various jobs. Employees and job seekers can measure their skills and compare them to skill profiles for specific jobs. Follow-up training using Key Train and other tools is available.

Employees and job seekers can document skill proficiency by taking the three assessments on the National Career Readiness Certificate (NCRC) – Applied Mathematics, Reading for Information and Locating Information. The NCRC is a portable, evidence-based credential that certifies essential skills needed for workplace success.

LCC also offers computer skills testing, typing tests and other tests to measure the skill level of employees and applicants. Support for companies looking for specialized training is also available. LCC frequently works with employers to provide or arrange customized training in a variety of areas, including job-specific Spanish language courses, quality assurance, business computer applications, customer service, and other areas critical to organizational success.

Microsoft Project 2010

Wild Water Rafting: Tieton River
The Tieton River is the most anticipated river stretch of the season. Located just west of Yakima on Hwy 12 in the Okanogan Wenatchee National Forest, the Tieton river roars with excitement for 14 miles of class III+ whitewater. While just a creek in the summer months, in September Rimrock Lake is released feeding the mighty Tieton River creating roller coaster like wave trains, and rapids such as “High noon”, “Wafflewall,” and “Grasshopper.” With fall colors surrounding you, warm desert weather and water that has been heated by the summer months you'll be happy to get the chance to raft on this river in September. The Tieton River marks the end of the whitewater season in Washington State, so make sure to book a trip on this beautiful stretch before the water is gone for the year. (Wildwater River Tours) $69

Save $$$ on Textbooks and Transportation

Textbook Rentals Reap Big Savings
Lower Columbia College students can save money on books and transportation this fall.
Rent your textbooks through the LCC Bookstore for an average savings of 60%. Since September 2013, LCC students saved over $68,000 by renting textbooks (an average of $68.40 per book).
Books for about half of the classes offered each quarter are available for rent. To see a list of textbooks available for rental, stop by the Bookstore.

Now, LCC Students Ride FREE
Ride RiverCities transit at no charge. Just show your LCC Student ID card. You’ll save fuel costs and other travel expenses, plus no hassles looking for a convenient place to park on campus during peak class times.
The LCC contract allows you to use RiverCities transit for all your travel needs around Cowlitz County. Check ‘Parking’ at lowercolumbia.edu for more information and a link to bus schedules.
