Continuing Education at Lower Columbia College assists individuals and employers to meet their personal and professional education and training needs by offering non-credit classes to the community. These classes are offered both on-site and online, to accommodate the needs of our students.

Business & Professional Development

LCC offers a variety of services supporting workforce development and customized training through the Workforce & Continuing Education Department. Working with area businesses, industries and agencies, LCC offers Work keys profiling and assessment services to provide employers, employees and job seekers with direct information regarding the skills needed to succeed in various jobs. Employees and job seekers can measure their skills and compare them to skill profiles for specific jobs. Follow-up training using KeyTrain and other tools is available.

Employers and job seekers can document skill proficiency by taking the three assessments on the National Career Readiness Certificate (NCRC) – Applied Mathematics, Reading for Information and Locating Information. The NCRC is a portable, evidence-based credential that certifies essential skills needed for workplace success.

LCC also offers computer skills testing, typing tests and other tests to measure the skill level of employees and applicants.

Support for companies looking for specialized training is also available. LCC frequently works with employers to provide or arrange customized training in a variety of areas, including job-specific Spanish language courses, quality assurance, business computer applications, customer service, and other areas critical to organizational success.

Mental Health First Aid Training

Just as CPR helps you assist an individual having a heart attack, even if you have no clinical training, Mental Health First Aid helps you assist someone experiencing a mental health related crisis. In the Mental Health First Aid course, you learn risk factor and warning signs for mental health and addiction concerns, strategies for how to help someone in both crisis and non-crisis situations, and where to turn for help.

The 8-hour Mental Health First Aid course helps participants not only gain confidence in their capacity to approach and offer assistance to others, but also to improve their own personal mental health. Don Talley Building, Room 201. $95

Oregon Historical Society/Museum-NEW
The Oregon Historical Society is private museum, library and educational institution located in downtown Portland. The permanent exhibition, Oregon Voices: Change and Challenge in Modern Oregon explores issues and events that have helped to shape Portland since the 1950s. As the exhibit includes interactive digital touch screens, you may never have the same experience twice. This exhibit builds off, Oregon My Oregon, an award winning exhibit that occupies an entire floor of the museum. The exhibit includes a re-creation of a Hudson’s Bay Company ship hull, a 19th century explorer’s tent and a stocked 1940s store complete with merchandise from the Hood River Yasui Brothers Mercantile. Joining these two permanent exhibits during our visit is the World War II: A World at War, A State Transformed exhibit, showcasing artifacts and manuscripts that help to illustrate this massive conflict. (Staff) $30 (includes admission into Museum)

Your Future Begins Here!

The evidence is clear – with each additional educational credential you achieve, you will earn more and be less likely to be unemployed (based on population averages).

How much more will you earn? People with associate’s degrees earn 19% more on average than people with high school diplomas, a figure that increases to 70% at the bachelor’s degree level.

What about employment? People with bachelor’s degrees experience unemployment at about half the rate of people with high school diplomas.
